CONSEQUENCES FOR VIOLATION OF CODE OF CONDUCT STANDARDS

District officials who violate one or more of the Code of Conduct Standards shall be subject to reporting to any applicable state or federal regulatory agency and to discipline in accordance with District policy and procedures, including termination of employment.

REASONS FOR REPORTING CONCERNS

We all share the responsibility for ensuring that the District's business is conducted in a legal and ethical manner. You are responsible for understanding how the District policies and procedures apply to you, and to follow them. You should discuss all questions or concerns with your manager, Human Resources, Compliance Officer or the Compliance Committee. Any violation of a law or District policy can result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

It is important that officials assist the District in avoiding problems by understanding the standards of conduct and raising concerns if those standards are being violated. By raising concerns, you give management the opportunity to address potential problems and protect the District.

REPORTING CONCERNS – OPEN-DOOR POLICY

At the District, many channels exist for reporting issues relating to this Code of Conduct. The District encourages openness and accessible discussion within the District. Most issues can be resolved before they become problems for officials, the District or the public. Our open-door policy encourages officials to present ideas, raise concerns and ask questions – especially those of a legal or ethical nature, but also those relating to quality of work and the working environment. All division directors, human resources personnel and District managers are responsible for supporting this policy by maintaining an “open-door” for employees or others who may reach out to them. Whenever you are in doubt, it is best to raise your concern.

In sum, if you reasonably believe that an official has violated or may violate a law or District policy, you have a duty to report that information immediately to your manager, another manager or division director, Compliance Officer or Human Resources. The District has open-door, anti-retaliation and confidentiality policies to protect officials who raise Code of Conduct concerns.

ALTERNATE PROCESS FOR REPORTING CONCERNS

While we hope that employees feel comfortable in discussing any matter with their managers, there may be times when employees prefer to use another avenue for addressing issues. In these cases, you may speak with others, including:

- The next higher level of supervision;
- Any manager or division director;
- Human Resources;
- Compliance Officer; or
- The Compliance Committee.

In addition, the Compliance Hotline is available by phone at for reporting tool 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year, and is operated by specially trained third-party representatives. The current Compliance Contacts are listed on the Compliance Contacts Sheet, as revised from time to time.

Retaliation against any official, who in good faith seeks advice, raises a concern or reports misconduct is strictly prohibited. The fact that an official has raised a concern in good faith, or has provided information in an investigation, cannot be a basis for denial of benefits, termination, demotion, suspension, threats, harassment or discrimination. If any individual, regardless of his or her role at the District, retaliates against an official who has truthfully and in good faith reported a potential violation, the District will take appropriate action.

If you believe that you, or another official, have been retaliated against for raising a good faith concern, you should contact Human Resources or the Compliance Officer immediately. You may also call the Compliance Hotline.

It is essential that you feel secure when participating in the District's Compliance Program. Confidentiality is a priority and every effort will be made to protect your identity whenever you interact with any element of the Compliance Program, if you so request. In some instances, however, it may not be possible to keep your identity confidential because of the nature of the investigation, the demands for a thorough investigation, or certain legal requirements. Where available or permitted by law, officials concerned about confidentiality may consider placing an anonymous call to the Compliance Hotline.

Information regarding compliance contacts and the Compliance Hotline number is posted on information boards throughout the District. In the event any information changes, the District will provide you with a notice and updated contact information. You should keep the notice, and any revised notice, with your copy of the Panoche Water District Code of Conduct.
